BLAIRS OF MORGAN COUNTY, KY

Due to circumstances beyond our control we have been unable to further the research on the Letcher County set of Blairs, so rather than delay more on Blair information. we are going ahead with data on some of the Morgan County set. This is a composite of Information from various sources. As usual on any articles appearing in TEK we request any corrective information. Also articles, sketches, etc on early eastern Kentucky families are always appreciated for future issues of TEK. Often those who submit this type of data received more family data than they do from queries. Also at the same time you are preserving data of a genealogical nature for future generations. Especially if you do not plan to publish this data elsewhere for preservation.

JESSE BLAIR, seems to be the progenitor of the Morgan County, Ky family of Blairs. He was born ca 1780 in Virginia, died in Morgan Co., Ky. ca 1864, m in Ky ca 1804, REBECCA ELLINGTON, b ca 1786, Va., dau of David Ellington. This will conclude the early lineage of the early Blair's in Morgan Co., Ky. Juanita Blair, Box 421, Morehead, Ky. 40351 developed and printed a 22½" x 18" black and white poster on enamel paper or David Caskey Blair Poster which carries the photo of David, his first two spouses, and the children of the first two marriages along with photos of their spouses. Well done and most informative on this lineage. This editor is not sure if this poster is still in print or if available for sale. Should you inquire of Juanita Blair please be sure to enclose a self addressed - stamped envelope. These editors are most fortunate to have had an across the street neighbor since the 1960's, Lillian (Cisco) Blair, widow of Luther Blair of Morgan County, the son of No. 55, William Greene and Martha Elizabeth Easterling Blair in the Sept 84 issue. Mrs. Blair, a hale 91, drives her own car, mows her lawn, rakes her leaves, etc. On her 90th birthday we held a surprise block picnic in her back yard. Her daughter and son-in-law (Carolyn and Tony Salvada of Cincinnati, Ohio) had a time holding her in tow to postpone her preparation of the evening meal for her guests who helped us pull this surprise party for her.

BLAIRS OF LETCHER CO., KY.

From various Data

By: Clayton R. Cox

In part I of this portion of the family in Letcher County in the March 1985 Issue, we asked for corrections and additions. Mrs. Burdette Bloomer, HC 84, Box 2960, Whitesburg, Ky. 41858, sent a rather stuffed envelope and said "Well you asked for it". What I feared from my first observation, turned out to be welcome news rather than a whole list of corrections. Except for one major and some minor corrections her data will supplement rather than make a lot of changes and should be most welcome information for those working on this family branch. Also she has submitted much needed additions in lineage to make this series very helpful on the Letcher County Blair's. We will list this information on the changes first and identify by the same lineage numbers used in the first part of this series.

1. Easter Robertson, wife of Charles Blair, was a dau of Benjamin and Celia Robertson.
2. Leticia Blair m John N. Day on Dec 14, 1806.
3. Celia Creech, wife of Joseph Blair, was a dau of John Jr. and Peggy (Wells) Creech.
4. There was no daughter, Frances Blair. Actually this Frances was Frances Harrison, dau of John Tobias and Molly (Fields) Harrison, who married William R. Collier. She was a sister to Elizabeth Harrison who m John Robertson Blair (See No. 5.)
6. Susannah Blair, m in Harlan Co., Ky., rather than in Knox Co., Ky., on Feb 25, 1819.
8. Charles Blair, b July 17, 1807, d March 4, 1894, m by John Dixon in Harlan Co., Ky. on March 20, 1830, Sarah Creech, b Feb 15, 1808, d March 22, 1891, dau of Jonathan and Mary "Polly" (Angelin) Creech. Charles presumably moved from VA to Knox Co., KY with his parents between 1807 and 1810. He acquired 100 acres on Collins Creek in Letcher Co., Ky., on Feb 22, 1845 (Possibly as an inheritance from his father, and 200 acres on Ounis Creek in Harlan Co., Ky. on Feb 2, 1882) Between 1850 and 1860 he moved into Lee or Wise Co., VA and probably settled on Stone Mountain near Big Stone Gap, VA. He returned to Letcher County, KY before 1870 and apparently lived there the rest of his life. Some believe that Charles was in the Mexican War, but there is no record of his serving either from KY or VA in the files of the National Archives. There is a gap in the spacing of his children that one could assume he was separated from his family between 1846 and 1848. He gave farmer as his occupation in all census records in which occupations were recorded.
9. Henry Blair, b 1810, in Knox Co., KY, m Nancy Dison, b abt 1813, on Dec 6, 1835 in Harlan Co., Ky. He acquired 100 acres of land on Morgan's Fork in Harlan Co., Ky Sept 10, 1845.
10. Isaac Fields, wife of Alcy Day, was a son of Ned (Sizemore) Fields and Martha Fields. Ned Sizemore was said to have been an Indian and took the surname of his wife.
11. Sarah Day, b Oct 12, 1812, m Apr 4, 1830 to Elijah Lee Creech, b Sept 10, 1810 Lee Co., Va., son of Jonathan and Mary "Polly" (Angeline) Creech.
13. Joseph Day, b Feb 14, 1817, d either Oct 6, 1884 or Nov 18, 1875, m July 7, 1837, Diannah Collier, b Sept 22, 1820, d Sept 14, 1890, dau of William R. and Frances B. (Harrison) Collier.
14. Emaline Day, b Dec 18, 1818, Harlan Co., Ky., d after 1880, probably Little Fork area of Elliott Co., Ky., m ca 1837, to Ezekiel Wells, b ca 1817, VA, d after 1890, son of William and Susan (Ward) Wells.
15. Charles Day, b Dec 29, 1820, died young.
16. John B. Day, b Nov 29, 1822, m June 6, 1844, Susan Collier, b Feb 10, 1825, d May 25, 1911, dau of William R. and Frances (Harrison) Collier.
17. William B. "Billy Bee" Day, b Oct 29, 1824, Scott Co., VA, m (1) ? Shell, m

BLAIRS OF LETCHER COUNTY, KY.

18. Moses Day, b Apr 18, 1827, d Aug 2, 1862, m Rachel Elkins. No further info.
 19. Henry Day, m (1) Martha Yearly, who died Apr 18, 1862. Mary Maggard his 2nd wife died Jan. 5, 1897. She was the dau of James and Abigail (Boggs) Maggard. Henry was twice assessor of Letcher Co, KY and also County Judge.
 20. Martha Day, m William* Day, b 1840, died May 1, 1854, the son of John L and Feriba (Yearly) Day. * Nickname "Flitter" Day.
 21. I don't believe that Rebecca Ann Day married twice, but not positive. Stephen Fields, b ca 1834, was the son of William and Lydia Fields.
- Now we need to add two more children for the issue of No. 2, John N. and Letitia (Blair) Day. These are:
- 21.1 Letitia Day, b May 10, 1836, d Apr 30, 1914, m Joseph Halcomb, b ca 1832,
 - 21.2 Polly Day m Jerry Wells.
25. Joseph McKnight, husband of Sarah Blair, was born ca 1826, son of James and Mary McKnight.
 26. Jane Blair, b ca 1827, d Oct 26, 1903, m Abner Jenkins, b May 16, 1828, d 1871, son of Jesse and Rachel Jenkins.
 27. Easter Blair, b ca 1829.
 29. Enoch Blair, b ca 1831, m Nancy Jenkins, dau of Jesse and Rachel Jenkins.
 31. Celia Blair m Hiram Cornett.
 42. Joseph Blair, d June 8, 1907 (my paternal Great Grandfather). After Susannah Brown died he m (2) Regina Dingus Blair, widow of Francis Marion Blair (my maternal Great Grandfather). Regina brought her children with her which included Mandy or Amanda Isabelle Blair (my paternal grandmother). Joseph was only married twice. Regina Dingus was born March 21, 1838, d Jan 17, 1908, dau of Samuel and Mahala (Wells) Dingus.
- Nos. 32 thru 40 will not apply now because of the correction to No. 4 except as we have made listings above.

This concludes the changes listed by Mrs. Burdette Bloomer, and as you will note are mainly covering additional data. Thanks Burdette, this info is very much appreciated. Burdette has also been most helpful to this editor on the Caudill Family History now in preparation.

Now to resume the lineage chart from Part 1, March 1985 Issue.

50. Lucinda Blair, b Aug 17, 1840, d Jan 1, 1920, m Jan 3, 1856, James H. Banks.

BLAIRS OF LETCHER CO., KY.

From various Data

By: Clayton R. Cox

Principally this article is now based on data furnished by Mrs. Burdette Bloomer, HC 84 Box 2960, Whitesburg, Ky. 41858.

Miss Martha Heineman, 706 N. Belvedere, Memphis, TN 38107 offers the following comments on the Blair article in the June 1985 issue.

6. Susannah Blair - According to Kosee's PIONEER FAMILIES OF EASTERN AND SOUTH-EASTERN KENTUCKY, Susannah Blair married in Knox County, Feb 15, 1814, rather than in Harlan County in 1819. Kozee's copy reads in print "Mays, John (Groom) Leemah Blair (Bride), but other interpretations of handwriting indicate this to be Susannah Blair.

Second the child added as "21.2 Polly Day m Jerry Wells" is the same couple already named Mary "Polly" Day m Jeremiah Wells. Polly and Jerry were simply nicknames. Their children were double cousins of my great grandmother, Retitia Wells Bradley.

Lastly I don't think we have sufficient evidence to state flatly that Easter Robertson was a daughter of Benjamin and Celia Robertson. The only place I have found that claim is from JOHN CREECH, SR. (1758 - ca 1783) by James M. Creech based on the two following excerpts: "It seems he (John Creech, Sr.) born in old Dobbs-Johnston Co., N. C. now Lenoir Co.) married just before he was drafted for service (Capt. Kennedy's Company, July 26, 1777), he married Elizabeth Robinson, the daughter of Benjamin Robinson, and wife Celia, of Dobbs Co., N. C." "After John's death, Elizabeth, his wife sold their land in present day Lenoir County to Parrott Mewborn 1 and Benjamin Creech, Jr. It seems that Elizabeth Robinson Creech, her brother Thomas Robinson, sister Easter Robinson, and Elizabeth's three sons, John Jr., Elijah, and Jonathan Creech set out by wagon train to the West." Martha indicates this data was sent to her by Burdette Bloomer.

A supplemental note from Martha indicates she is finding some extensive records on Easter Blair's brother, Thomas Robertson in White Co., TN, which she will submit later when fully researched and organized. It seems Thomas had another sister, Ann David, whose grandchildren filed suit to obtain part of Thomas Robertson's estate long after it had been settled.

Now to resume our Blair lineage of Letcher County from the June 1985 issue.

BLAIRS OF LETCHER CO., KY.

From various data

By: Clayton R. Cox

Principally this article is now based on data furnished by Mrs. Burdette Bloomer, HC 84 Box 2960, Whitesburg, Ky. 41858.

Sharon Brown McConnell, John Wilson Townsend Room, John Grant Crabbe Library, Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Ky. 40475-0949, has furnished additional information pertaining to our September 1985 portion of this article.

On Page 23, No. 104, it was stated "Susan Wells, b 1840 (This may be the Susannah Wells who married George W. Brown, son of John Q. Brown, but I am not sure.)"

Mrs. McConnell states the Susannah Wells who married George W. Brown are her great grandparents. George W. Brown is listed in the 1850 Letcher Co., Ky. census as having been born in KY, age 18. This George W. Brown is the son of Valentine Brown who came from England to N.C. where he married Polly Ross in Wilkes County, Nov 25, 1825. It is her understanding that Valentine Brown was the first teacher in Letcher Co., Ky.

Now to resume our article from the September 1985 issue.

From Various Data

By: Clayton R. Cox

Editor's Note: One of the greatest fears I have in publishing genealogy, both as editor of this publication and in personal genealogies published, is that some of the information is incorrect, and someone will come along and take it as gospel because they saw it in print. This is why I stress to everyone when they are studying a family history is dig for the facts. Prove what you see is correct. Don't hesitate to question what you see. If you don't then we are going to muddy up the picture. It is not possible for those of those who try to give broad coverage to check out every minute detail and our works are certainly subject to error when we rely on others, but this is not to fault them for what they might be working from is the best source available to them and there may be more accurate sources yet uncovered. So we don't think we can say it often enough PROVE IT. So when we publish an article in TEK if you find something wrong give us the opportunity to correct it, but tell us why we are wrong.

Mrs. John Shrewsbury, 1231 Augusta Street, Bluefield, W. Va. 24701 has pointed out some errors in the early data we used in this Blairs of Letcher County series and Mrs. Burdette Bloomer concurs. So let's proceed to make these corrections.

In the June 1985 issue of the family of Charles and Sarah Creech Blair, page 23, it does not include the son, Charles Blair. According to the Wise Co, VA 1860 census there was a son Charles, age 15, born in Kentucky. In addition to this Burdette Bloomer mentions still others that were omitted.

Children Nos. 54, 55, & 56 or correct.

No. 57. Susannah Blair m Dec 16, 1850, John B. Collier, b May 1831/34, d Oct 22, 1863 in Chicago, Ill at Camp Douglas of measles. We indicated John's father William Collier was killed in the Civil War, but this is incorrect for it was John himself that died in the Civil War.

No. 58 is OK, but Easter that was listed as No. 59 is not included in the list for this family.

No. 60 is incorrect. This Elizabeth Blair was Charles Blair's sister, and was correctly listed as No. 7 in the March 1985 issue.

The following are addition children to be listed for this family of Charles and Sarah Creech Blair.

60.1. John Henry Blair, b Jan 20, 1838, d July 5, 1920, m Sept 3, 1857, Malissa b Aug 28, 1838, d Sept 9, 1919, dau of Joseph and Mariah (Boothe) Wells.

60.2 Hiram Blair, b ca 1841, d 1860-61, m Unita Wells, b ca 1841 in VA.

60.3. Sarah C. Blair, b ca 1842, m Jesse Marlin Brown, b ca 1841, son of John Q. and Elizabeth (Caudill) Brown.

60.4 Charles Blair, b 1844-45, m Lavina Banks. Charles was killed by Union soldiers during the Civil War.

60.5 Jemima Blair, b Dec 1849 or Jan 1850, m George Caudill, b ca 1836.

This should correct this family to the proper 10 children.

Some of you may want to add lineage information for these corrections and we ask you please do so for future articles in this series.

Now to resume our listing from the September 1986 issue which is mainly based on data submitted by Mrs. Burdette Bloomer, HC 84, Box 2960, Whitesburg, KY 41859.

BLAIRS OF LETCHER CO., KY.

508. (Continued) It housed split log seats with out backs. Usually they sang a song between sermons, perhaps so the people could stand and rest. Usually three or four preachers took their turns. He remembered Morgan Lipps preaching on the great speckled bird at the Oven Fork Association Meeting about 1878. Also he remembered Wiley Morris preaching there. On one occasion he glanced through a window, which was just a square hole in the wall behind the pulpit and called out, "Enoch Blair your mare is loose".

Now to continue this 92 year old's recollections (James H. Brown) to Mr. Phillips. In October 1856, James advised he remembered that at Christmas time the Cumberland Valley folk would fire war muskets for fire crackers. They packed the muskets with material from hornet nests. They hung stockings back then, but there was little in them. At Halloween they sometimes had parties or log rollings. In winter snow would drift over the rail fences. One of his remembrances was an old herb doctor at the head of Cowan by the name of Mathy Fields. He also remembered the old Sycamore School. In this school they burned poplar logs for heat. Initially the fires were started by rubbing planks through cracks in the logs to fire the kindling, but later flint was used. Usually only a three months school, and some of the old teachers were Maylan Brown, John Lewis and others.

When Uncle Jim, as he was affectionately called, died at almost 95, he was one of the oldest members, membershipwise in the Masonic Order of Kentucky. He was a charter member of the Knott County Lodge in 1892, and became a charter member of the Whitesburg Lodge in 1898. He was instrumental in setting up the Post Office at Blackey, KY, and served as its first postmaster. This office was later discontinued. One of the stories of Uncle Jim was years ago he aquired an antique pistol and took it to Bill Walters for renovation. He called for it, loaded it, and started away with the pistol in hand. It fired and he lost a toe. Bill Walters said, "Uncle Jim, seems to me you could have had the cobbler make your shoes a little wider. Seems some trouble to shoot off a little toe to make the shoe fit." One of the true stories of Uncle Jim was his own coffin, hand made years before, and it waited for him at the "Red" Brashears Funeral Home. He had written detailed instructions for his funeral services and burial. He had saved over the years the teeth he had had extracted and requested they be placed in his coffin. Sally died at Ulvah, Ky. She was a member of the Leatherwood Old Regular Baptist Church.

We asked for corrections and additional data and lineage on this family. Well we received it. Data from Mrs. Holly Fee, Mrs. Ella Coleman and Mr. Estill Day.

It is necessary to back up to an early part of this series so these changes will be worked in as work down the series numerically. In the insertion of this data we will have to modify our numbering system somewhat. So when we use 53.1, 53.2 or 351.1, 351.2, etc. we are inserting members between 53 and 54 and 351 and 352.

Some of the differences in birth dates will be the contributors interpretations of census listing by age and census date.

Holly Fee, publisher of Harlan Foot Prints (now Foot Prints Publications and Research, formerly the Genealogical Society of Harlan) P. O. Box 1499, Harlan, KY 40831, has added data to extend this Blair family into Harlan Co., KY. This will add additional information on some members of the family already published plus additional lineage to this branch of the Blair family.

BLAIRS OF PIKE COUNTY, KY

Part 1

Data for this series on the Blairs of Pike County, Ky was furnished by:
Audrey Lamothe, 427 Lafayette Ave., Apt 3, Lexington, KY 40502

(Editors Note: Questions have arisen on prior published data of the Blairs of Letcher Co., KY series. Due to their nature, the press of other commitments, and the insufficient time element remaining prior to the printing deadline for September issue copy submission to resolve these, the Blairs of Letcher Co., KY series will be postponed. In the interim period we will run the Blairs of Pike County, KY series.)

The progenitor of the Blairs of Pike County was William Blair, b ca 1810-12 in Russell Co., VA. William was the son of Jacob Blair II, b ca 1767 "On the Big Lalingo", in PA, who lived in Rowan Co., NC in 1800, Wilkes Co., NC 1805-10, and settled in Russell Co., VA. This Jacob is on the 1805 tax list for Wilkes Co., NC, in the same district as Archelus Craft, the many Adams families, and others who came to Kentucky around the same time that Jacob Blair moved to VA. Jacob's wife was Margaret "Peggy" Walker, ancestry unknown. Jacob died ca 1862 and Margaret died ca 1868, both in Buchanan Co., VA. Their known issue:

- a Elizabeth m John Cheney
- b Margaret m John Yates Jr.
- c Jacob III m Jane McClanahan
- d Benjamin m Amelia ?
- e William m Frances Compton (Subjects of this Series)
- f Sarah Jane m Andrew Ball

Also thought to belong to this family group is:

- g Nancy m William McClanahan, brother to the above Jane McClanahan.

According to a history written in 1909 by Jacob Blair IV (see photo in this issue) son of Jacob III, the first Blair ancestor of this group was named Jacob Blair I, who "came to America from Ireland ca 1700. He came to NC or thereabouts. He was captured and escaped several times, by Cherokee Indians. He lived with them for seven years and married one of their women, a full-blooded Cherokee. Three sons were born to them, Jacob, George and John. The first Jacob 'stood a draft' in the Revolutionary War." Most of the issue of Jacob Blair II and Peggy Walker remained in the Russell-Buchanan Co., VA area. Nothing known of his brothers.

William Blair, the subject of this sketch, married Frances Compton, also b in Russell Co., VA. Frances was a sister of Leander and William T. Compton, who settled early in Pike County.

William and Frances were on the tax list in Pike Co, in 1835 (as was her brother, John Allen Compton), and their first child, Jacob, was born there. They returned to Russell Co., VA, that year and stayed until ca 1857. They moved back to Pike County at that time and remained there. Tradition says they walked all the way, bringing their belongings on horses. Their last child, Henry Whetzel, was said to have been born on this trek. William died ca 1869-70, Frances died ca 1897 and they were both buried on Sookies Creek. The area was plowed under by a later owner of the property, so the graves no longer exist. Many older descendants can point out the site of the old burial place. In the 1870 census of Pike Co, Frances was head-of-household, living on Robinson Creek; in 1880 she was living with her son, Jasper, at the mouth of Caney.

WILLIAM BLAIR and FRANCES COMPTON

Issue:

1. Jacob F. Blair, b June 13, 1835, Pike Co., KY, d at Denton, Texas, Mar 28, 1878, m in Russell Co., VA, Aug 20, 1854, Louisa Hutchins, b Dec 4, 1836, Yancy Co., NC, d in Lewis Co., WA, Oct 25, 1923, dau of Jacob and Nancy (Buchanan) Hutchins. Jacob and Louisa (See their photo in the March 1986 TEK) lived in Russell and Wise Cos., VA until 1865. Jacob served in the Civil War. In 1865 he and his family and other relatives and friends, including Hutchins, Smyth, Fuller, King, McStotts, Rasnick, Ramey, Counts and others made the long trek to Meeker Co., MN, some saying they walked most of the way, others going by boat. Their town in Minnesota was dubbed "Little Virginia", due to the origin of most of the settlers. It was later called Collingwood. Jacob Blair served as the first Assessor and as a school trustee for the new town. His father-in-law, Jacob Hutchins, was the first town treasurer and was director of the school board. For reasons yet unknown, Jacob decided in the late 1870's to join other friends and perhaps kin, who were going by wagon train to Denton, Texas. He was ill when he arrived there and after settling in and getting his first crop planted he died. Realizing that he was seriously ill, he had called his older sons to his bedside and made them promise to take their mother and the younger children back to Minnesota, if he should die. This they did, and later most of the pioneers who had move to "New Virginia" again moved, more or less "en masse" to Lewis Co., WA., in whose vicinity most descendants are still to be found.
