Dewey Boyd, 104, dean of local Legionnaires, dies

Dewey Boyd, who lived in three centuries and served in two world wars, died Monday, March 24, 2003 at Cady Memorial Home in Birnamwood. He was 104 years old.

Boyd was a gentle pioneer who enjoyed nothing more than playing his banjo, telling stories and visiting with the American Legion "boys."

At the time of his death he was the longest-serving member of American Legion Post No. 3, Sparks-Doernenburg, earning special citations from the unit in 2000, 2001, 2002 and again this year. Mayor Miles Stanke proclaimed Dewey Boyd Day in Antigo in conjunction with the Legion open houses and parties.

"I plan on living to be 120," Mr. Boyd said after he was presented with one of the proclamations. "I'll bring my banjo and play a tune."

Mr. Boyd enlisted in the United States Army shortly before the end of World War I and enlisted again when the country was fighting the second world war. He joined American Legion Post No. 3 in 1943 and was also honored in 1998, his 55th anniversary with the post.

"He calls the Legion members 'the boys,' a throwback to his World War I days," Legion Commander Steve Bradley said. "So the boys were always happy to throw a party for him."

The final party was held this year in Birnamwood.

Mr. Boyd was born on Feb. 17, 1899 in Floyd County, Ky. to James and Annie (Stamper) Boyd. When he was 11 years old, he went to work in the West Virginia coal mines before moving with his family to Elton when he was 15.

Mr. Boyd grew up in Langlade County's pioneer days, working in the woods, at the Crocker Chair Company and as a cook in logging camps. He was among the crew that helped carve the railroad right-of-way between White Lake and Crandon.

He later was employed by the Soo Line as a section hand for seven years. He left the northwoods to work as a line rigger for Standard Oil in Chicago until he returned to Elton and worked as a sawyer on the Menominee Indian Reservation, retiring in 1964.

He was married to, and later divorced from, the former Florence Buckner.

Survivors include many nieces and nephews and two sisters-in-law.

He was preceded in death by four sisters, Ida Messer, Lily Holbrook, Archie Whitt and Carrie Boyd; and five brothers, Robert, David, Ike, Noah and Ted Boyd.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at Bradley Funeral Home. Rev. James Stevens will officiate. Burial will be in Langlade Cemetery.

Visitation is planned Thursday from 9:30 a.m. until the time of services. Antigo veterans will conduct military rites.

Searchers Find Missing Man Dead in Lick Creek

An 88-year-old Rt. 1 South Point man's body was recovered from the backwater of Lick Creek at 11:40 p.m. Thursday about three hours after he was reported missing from the Valley Care Center Nursing Home at Sheridan.

Floyd Boyd, clothed in pajamas and robe, was discovered about 200 yards from the nursing home at a spot where he had fallen through the ice and had apparently struck his head on a log.

It was reported that Boyd had left the home on a previous occasion in an attempt to reach the residence of his wife, Marie, on nearby Wildwood Road and officers surmised that the victim was heading for the junction of Wildwood and Lick Creek roads across the creek bed when he broke through the ice.

The three-hour search was conducted by the Ohio Highway Patrol, sheriff's deputies, South Point police, volunteer firemen of South Point and Sheridan, and members of React CB Radio group. Harold Eicher, investigator of the county coroner's office, was at the scene when the body was recovered.

Darkness, freezing temperatures and treacherous ice impeded the searchers. Television camera lights were brought into play to light the bankside search area.

The body was removed to Phillips Funeral Home.

Notes for +John Jackson "Jackie" Boyd:

Jackson Boyd and his family once lived on a farm above the Haus Branch on Prater Creek near Banner. They later lived on Hunt's Fork of PraterCreek and were buried there on the Jack Boyd Cemetery.

Some of the pioneer Boyd's were said to have settled in Ulster, Ireland. The term "Buidhe" is a Gaelic word meaning "yellow" ; hence the light-colored hair adorning those of the Boyd blood line.

Other relatives of Jackson Boyd were said to have lived in Virginia. During the Civil War they were allegedly on opposite sides, the Virginia Boyds fought for the Union Army; while the Kentucky Boyd's fought on the Rebel side. Because of the embarrassing situation, the Virginia Boyd's would have nothing to do with the Boyd's on Prater Creek (allegedly).

LEE BOYD Death:10-06-33 Age:57 County: Floyd

NOTE: From LISHA WHITT: I have only recently started searching for my grandmother's parents Lee Boyd and Lou Ellen Crisp (whom I had been told all of my life was a Conn). I found information on Lou Ellen, but I just received Lee Boyd's death certificate yesterday that lists him as the child of Alex Boyd of Woods, Ky and Margaret Masley (Mosley?) of Prestonsburg. I have also located some of my grandmother's family that still live in the Dana, Ky area: Goldie Conn and John Boyd. Their memories also verify what I found. I live on Blackberry Creek in Pike County. My grandmother had told us that all of her family lived in Floyd County. e-mail: whitt6@bellsouth.net

PRATER CREEK IS SCENE OF BLOODY BATTLE SATURDAY SIX OTHERS WOUNDED

One of the bloodiest battles ever to occur in Kentucky took place during a school trustee election on the head of Prater Creek in Floyd county late last Saturday afternoon and as a result five persons are dead and six others have bullet holes in their body.

Seated on the opposite sides of the table, the two factions, one supporting Arnold Robinette and the other Arville Sammons, "shot it out." When the smoke of battle cleared, Wilburn Conn and Wayne Click were dead, and nine others wounded, Green Conn, Mimms Conn and his son Millard Conn died Sunday from their wounds. Lawrence Conn, another son of Mimms Conn is shot through the bowels and is a dying condition. Ike Conn who was wounded in right thigh is at liberty under a $10,000 bond on each of two charges in the killing of Mimms and Millard Conn. He was arrested after treatment at the Beaver Valley Hospital at Martin, by Sheriff B. F. Sturgill of Floyd county. All other participants in the bloody battle are dead or in the hospital at Martin.

Witnesses said there were no signs of drinking at the school election but the night was bitter between the two factions. It is said that more than $500 were spent in the school district by the two sides. Sol Sammons, the candidate for school trustee supported by the Green Conn faction, it is said, was leading by two votes when the shooting took place. Two votes were ready to be cast for Arnold Robinette, the candidate backed by Mimms Conn and sons and Hayden Howell. As the two voters arrived according to the report, Green Conn stepped inside the three into the room where the election was being held and announced that time for closing the polls was at hand. The opposition, and Hayden Howell were seated at the table to tabulate the two more votes for his candidate. Mrs. Martha Conn, wife of Green Conn, snatched at the poll sheet, it was reported and Lawrence Conn did likewise whereupon Green Conn knocked the latter down with fists. Guns then began to blaze across the little table.

"When this happened," Hayden Howell is reported to have said at the hospital, "Millard Conn shot Green in the back as Green started to pull a pistol. Then the shooting was almost continuous. There were from thirty to forty men and women in the room and I saw the men fall on every side of me. I was unarmed and the fight was between Mimms and his son, Millard and Lawrence on one side against Green, Ike and Wilburn Conn and Wayne Click on the other. As I ran from the midst, stooped over, a bullet me in the back."

Lawrence Conn was quoted as saying at the hospital at Martin that Ike Conn shot him while he stood begging for his life, his revolver in his holster.

Mimms Conn is quoted at the hospital at Martin that when the shooting began, he crouched behind a door and took no part in the fight, but that Ike Conn after shooting several others, turned and saw him and fired upon him.

It is said that Millard and Ike Conn did most of the shooting. Three teachers are necessary for the school at which the shooting took place. Sol Sammons was a candidate with an announced intention of recommending Woodrow Conn, Richard Hall, and Green Conn, Jr., as teachers. Jerry Howell was named as one of the teachers to be appointed by Arnold Robinette, the other candidate.

Other disturbances were reported from other sections of the state in the school trustee elections held last Saturday. One is reported killed in Breathitt County and two were wounded in Lawrence County. The election passed off quietly in Johnson County.
