OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CHRISTIANS

DESCENT FROM THOMAS & MARY (AMBURGY) CHRISTIAN

Of the Kentucky settlers among the children of Thomas and Margaret "Rebecca" (Pine) Christian, more is presently known of the descendants of his namesake than of the other sons.

Thomas Christian, born 10 May 1809 before his parents' move from Virginia, died 21 April 1884 in Rowan County, Kentucky, and is buried in the Christian Cemetery on Open Fork. He married Mary "Polly" Amburgy about 1830. She was born to John and Elizabeth (Hamon) Amburgy 27 July 1807 in Wilkes County, North Carolina, and died 31 March 1883 in Rowan County, where she, too, was buried on Open Fork. Thomas and Mary Christian had ten children, all born in that part of Perry County later included in Letcher County, Kentucky:

Rebecca "Bexey" Christian, born about 1831, married Davis Cornette in 1850. He was born about 1824 in Kentucky.

John B. Christian, born about 1832, believed to have been the one who married Eliza Smith 16 July 1852 in Letcher County. He may also have married Eliza Branham. (A cousin John may have been the one who had one or the other of these women as a spouse.)

EASTERN KENTUCKY RELATIVES

A REVIEW OF PUBLISHED DATA

Surprisingly often, as soon as information about a family reaches print, the editor discovers unexpected, contradictory data. Equally often, the editor receives welcome corrections, additions, and documents that clarify discrepancies. "Eastern Kentucky Relatives of the West Virginia Christians" is no exception.

Consider Robert Paris Christian, his wife Leah, and family (see Volume No. VIII, page 660). Known as both "Robin" and "Bob" and born 6 November 1839 in that part of Perry County that became Letcher County, Kentucky, he may have been married more than once; if so, however, such event took place before—not after—the union with Leah Short. She did have more than one marriage. What is the evidence for these conclusions and others to follow?

A letter written 17 November 1936 by William James Short to historian James Taylor Adams allows one to start with a family

NOTE: Supplementary data for this article were received from Mrs. Hildreth (Christian) Kidd, Mrs. Kathleen (Kidd) Lewis, and Mrs. Jennifer (Cline) Henize—all descendants of Robert and Leah (Short) Christian. Mrs. Kidd provided relevant copies from the unpublished papers and manuscript of James Taylor Adams (1893-1954) housed at Clinch Valley College Library Archives at Wise, Virginia. The writings of this "mountain scholar" shed considerable light on the Short family and their Christian family connections containing, as they do, letters from two sons of Robert and Leah (Short) Christian; namely, John and Henry.

EASTERN KENTUCKY RELATIVES OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CHRISTIANS

source. For in his letter Mr. Short provided information about his father's siblings and their families. A significant quotation relating to the Christians pertains to their marital status:

. . . Leah married first a Caudill — he died in a short time & she left Letcher then & went to Rowan Co & married Bob Christian A widower & had a large family . . .

No record of an earlier marriage for Robert Christian has yet been found, but substantiation of Leah Short's earlier marriage to a Mr. Caudill is available in a subsequent marriage license application. On 19 March 1863 the Wise County, Virginia, Marriage Register lists her as Leah Caudill, age 22 and widowed, daughter of Charles and Anný Short, when license was obtained to marry John Cantrel, age 21 and single, son of Hiram and Nancy Cantrel. That marriage either never took place or ended in divorce since both parties married others not long thereafter—John Cantrel to Nancy Mullins 26 June 1865 in Wise County and Leah Short to Robert Christian 12 May 1864 in either Letcher or Rowan County, Kentucky.

Leah Short, whose birth year is still open to question (1839 on tombstone, 1841 per marriage license, 1844 on death register, 1846 per 1850 census), was the daughter of Charles and Anna (Mullins) Short. Her father was not Anderson Short unless that happened to be Charles' middle name.

On the subject of middle names: It may be of interest that Henry Christian identified his father as Robert Parrish Christian.

More complete information can now be published about families of two of the sons of Robert and Leah (Short) Christian—Henry Albert "Scotty" Christian and William Davis Christian.

Henry Albert "Scotty" Christian, born 22 October 1868, died 1949; married three times: 1) Alwilda Caudill, 1874-1889; 2) Frances Jane Cox, born 10 May 1868 Rowan County, Kentucky, daughter of Gordon Hilton and Martha Adeline (Barker) Cox; and 3) Alice Harris. All children were born of the second marriage:

Tobise Christian, born 3 June 1892, died 1918; married 1912 Lena Boggs, to whom two children were born: Mary Christian, 16 February 1917, and Arthur Christian, 28 May 1919.

EASTERN KENTUCKY RELATIVES

Of the Kentucky settlers among the children of Thomas and Margaret "Rebecca" (Pine) Christian, more is presently known of the descendants of his namesake than of the other sons.

Thomas Christian, born 10 May 1809 before his parents' move from Virginia, died 21 April 1884 in Rowan County, Kentucky, and is buried in the Christian Cemetery on Open Fork. He married Mary "Polly" Amburgy about 1830. She was born to John and Elizabeth (Hamon) Amburgy 27 July 1807 in Wilkes County, North Carolina, and died 31 March 1883 in Rowan County, where she, too, was buried on Open Fork. Thomas and Mary Christian had ten children, all born in that part of Perry County later included in Letcher County, Kentucky:

Rebecca "Bexey" Christian, born about 1831, married Davis Cornette in 1850. He was born about 1824 in Kentucky.

John B. Christian, born about 1832, believed to have been the one who married Eliza Smith 16 July 1852 in Letcher County. He may also have married Eliza Branham. (A cousin John may have been the one who had one or the other of these women as a spouse.)

EASTERN KENTUCKY RELATIVES OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CHRISTIANS

Thomas W. Christian, born about 1834, had a wife named Mary. They moved from Kentucky to Carroll County, Arkansas.

Elizabeth Christian, born about 1836, married in Rowan County 1 July 1858 John W. Nance, born about 1835.

Rosana Christian, born about 1837, married in Letcher County 20 January 1854 David Caudill, born about 1832 in Perry County.

Robert Paris "Robin" Christian, born 6 November 1839, died in Rowan County 8 January 1916. He was married twice; however, all his children were born to his first wife Leah Short, born 16 June 1839/1844 in what became Wise County, Virginia, died 24 October 1917 in Rowan County, daughter of Anderson and Annie (Mullins) Short. Robin and Leah were married 12 May 1864 and had ten children:

Thomas Alen Christian, born 22 September 1866, died 19 October 1918, married Nancy Smith, to whom were born four children: Dan, who is not married; Ethel, who married Richard Ghee; Allen, who married Miss Pigman; and Lillie, who married Mr. Butler and Mr. Cooper.

Henry Albert "Scotty" Christian, born 22 October 1868, died 1949; married three times: by 1) Alwilda Caudill, 1874-1889, there were no children; by 2) Francis Cox, four children—Bias, who married Lena; Bill, who married Ann; Frank, who married Grace Fletcher; and Hilton, who also married; by 3) Alice Harris, there were no children.

William Davis Christian, born 22 March 1870, died 10 February 1955; married twice: by 1) Sarah Elizabeth Lewis, 1873-1931, ten children—Clella, Elizabeth "Libby", Lealia, Corbett, Roscoe, Anna, Vada, Addie, Vivian, and an infant who died at birth; by 2) name not known, three children—Ruth, who married Mr. McBrayer; Hildreth, who married a Kidd; and Jackie.

Cordelia Loademia Rodemsia Josephine Christian, a twin born 9 March 1871, married 13 July 1888 Ira Sparkman, 1860-1930, by whom she had ten children—John Robbart, Dovie Lee, Bertha Elizabeth, George Eugene, Mae, Troy Ernest, Nora, Alma, Rebia, and Edgar.

A REVIEW OF PUBLISHED DATA

Surprisingly often, as soon as information about a family reaches print, the editor discovers unexpected, contradictory data. Equally often, the editor receives welcome corrections, additions, and documents that clarify discrepancies. "Eastern Kentucky Relatives of the West Virginia Christians" is no exception.

Consider Robert Paris Christian, his wife Leah, and family (see Volume No. VIII, page 660). Known as both "Robin" and "Bob" and born 6 November 1839 in that part of Perry County that became Letcher County, Kentucky, he may have been married more than once; if so, however, such event took place before—not after—the union with Leah Short. She did have more than one marriage. What is the evidence for these conclusions and others to follow?

A letter written 17 November 1936 by William James Short to historian James Taylor Adams allows one to start with a family

NOTE: Supplementary data for this article were received from Mrs. Hildreth (Christian) Kidd, Mrs. Kathleen (Kidd) Lewis, and Mrs. Jennifer (Cline) Henize—all descendants of Robert and Leah (Short) Christian. Mrs. Kidd provided relevant copies from the unpublished papers and manuscript of James Taylor Adams (1893-1954) housed at Clinch Valley College Library Archives at Wise, Virginia. The writings of this "mountain scholar" shed considerable light on the Short family and their Christian family connections containing, as they do, letters from two sons of Robert and Leah (Short) Christian; namely, John and Henry.

EASTERN KENTUCKY RELATIVES OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CHRISTIANS

source. For in his letter Mr. Short provides information about his father's siblings and their families. A significant quotation relating to the Christians pertains to their marital status:

. . . Leah married first a Caudill — he died in a short time & she left Letcher then & went to Rowan Co & married Bob Christian
A widower & had a large family . . .

No record of an earlier marriage for Robert Christian has yet been found, but substantiation of Leah Short's earlier marriage to a Mr. Caudill is available in a subsequent marriage license application. On 19 March 1863 the Wise County, Virginia, Marriage Register lists her as Leah Caudill, age 22 and widowed, daughter of Charles and Anný Short, when license was obtained to marry John Cantrel, age 21 and single, son of Hiram and Nancy Cantrel. That marriage either never took place or ended in divorce since both parties married others not long thereafter—John Cantrel to Nancy Mullins 26 June 1865 in Wise County and Leah Short to Robert Christian 12 May 1864 in either Letcher or Rowan County, Kentucky.

Leah Short, whose birth year is still open to question (1839 on tombstone, 1841 per marriage license, 1844 on death register, 1846 per 1850 census), was the daughter of Charles and Anna (Mullins) Short. Her father was not Anderson Short unless that happened to be Charles' middle name.

On the subject of middle names: It may be of interest that Henry Christian identified his father as Robert Parrish Christian.

More complete information can now be published about families of two of the sons of Robert and Leah (Short) Christian—Henry Albert "Scotty" Christian and William Davis Christian.

Henry Albert "Scotty" Christian, born 22 October 1868, died 1949; married three times: 1) Alwilda Caudill, 1874-1889; 2) Frances Jane Cox, born 10 May 1868 Rowan County, Kentucky, daughter of Gordon Hilton and Martha Adeline (Barker) Cox; and 3) Alice Harris.
